

The no-call list provides a very important protection to families and individuals to not have their lives interrupted by unsolicited calls. These calls not only interrupt, they are intrusive and very annoying. Please do not allow telemarketing calls to be made to my home.